

PROFILES OF HORSHAM: PEOPLE, PLACES AND EVENTS FROM ITS PAST

A catalogue of features on the history of Horsham and its surroundings, from the 16th-20th century, all written by Brian Slyfield

Copies of the listed articles are freely available on request to anyone who wishes to learn a little more about the history of their town, or to expand their interest in a certain area. The articles, generally up to 2,000 words in length, but with a few much shorter, are either (as yet) unpublished or have already been published, mainly in the Horsham Society Newsletter.

They are available to Horsham Society members and the general public. To request an article please write to Brian Slyfield, Arun House, Denne Road, Horsham, West Sussex RH12 1JF, enclosing a stamped addressed envelope large enough to take 1-3 folded A4 sheets, and quote the required article's reference number. Please note that all articles remain the copyright of Brian Slyfield, and should not be reproduced without prior permission.

Articles that have already been published will include support illustrations, while unpublished ones will generally consist of text only.

The list is being added to on a regular basis, and will be updated from time to time.
