Comments: Dear Sirs,

On behalf of Horsham Society I wish to lodge a qualified objection to Planning Application DC/16/2672. Whilst we have no objection to the construction of a new crossover, we have concerns regarding the Ash tree.

Presently the Ash tree is covered in ivy. Measures should be undertaken for the ivy to be removed and the ivy roots killed. Following completion of this work the Ash tree should be inspected and if found to be in good condition, retained. However if the inspection finds the tree to be in an unsafe condition, it should be felled and replaced with a mature specimen, the replacement works to be undertaken in the appropriate planting season.

Yours faithfully,

David Griffiths. (secretary to the planning sub
