Dear Tom

BROADBRIDGE HEATH LEISURE CENTRE CONSULTATION

I am writing to respond to the Council's consultation on the future of Broadbridge Heath Leisure Centre.

In our view it is clearly necessary for the leisure centre to be redeveloped in order to provide a modern building which will be more economic to operate.

However, in our view none of the four options on which the Council is consulting are acceptable.

It would be very shortsighted to seek to provide facilities that do not take account of the likely expansion of the town over the next 20 years taking account of the outcome of the "How many houses does Horsham need" consultation.

We believe that the site should be redeveloped with the aim of replacing facilities on a like for like basis.

Yours sincerely

John Steele
